Another sends from thirty to fifty carloads each year to the Pacific coast. Thus it may readily be seen that the agricultural and mechanical interests of Wayne county are beginning to receive that public consideration their importance demands. The farmers of the county are beginning to appreciate the noble and honorable culling in which they are engaged, and are making the science of agriculture their study, getting out of the old ruts and preparing themselves to answer the question, How am T rahe the moat grain on the (east ground? Joseph C. Ratliff, President. WELLS COUNTY. The Wells County Agricultural Society held their Seventeenth Annual Fair on the grounds usually occupied by the society, near Bluffton, on September 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th. We were under the impression during the summer, that we would have a good fair, and the officers worked very hard to obtain a favorable result in advertising, and obtaining attractions, but owing to failure of crops we just merely paid expenses and old debts, paying no premiums whatever. Our receipts for the year were, $1,250; expenditures, $1,232; leaving a balance of $24. The horse department was about as usual. The swine department was the best ever shown here. The sheep department not so good as last year. Our specimens of corn, wheat, potatoes, and other vegetables, weie extra good this year; our farmers taking more interest. Floral hall did not have a...
