

Situational Context of Education: A Window into the World of Bilingual Learners (Hardback)

By Angela Burgos, Sara Ruth Hamerla, Maria Estela Brisk

Taylor Francis Ltd, United Kingdom, 2015. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book gives educators important answers to the urgent question of how teachers and schools can facilitate language minority and immigrant students progress in school. It offers an innovative and powerful method teachers and students can use to study the situational context of education, providing both the theoretical background and the practical tools to implement this approach. The situational context of education includes linguistic, economic, social, cultural, and political factors, as well as conditions, such as students personal characteristics, family support, and quality of instruction. All of these factors influence the lives of students and their academic performance and contribute in many ways, some subtle and indirect, to making the educational experience more or less difficult for different students. The premise of the book is that objective study of the situational context of education by both students and teachers is beneficial because it leads to a more realistic view of how to facilitate students progress in school. Designed as a text for graduate courses for preservice and in-service teachers working with students in bilingual, ESL, mainstream,...
