The alert black eyes of the young New Mexican wandered discontentedly over the raw ugliness of the camp. Towns straggled here and there untidily at haphazard, mushroom growths of a day born of a lucky strike. Into the valleys and up and down the hillsides ran a network of rails for trolley and steam cars. Everywhere were the open tunnel mouths or the frame shaft-houses perched above the gray Titan dump beards. The magic that had wonderfully brought all these manifold activities into being had its talisman in the word Gold; but, since Pesquiera had come neither as a prospector nor investor, he heard with only half-concealed impatience the easy gossip of his fellow travelers about the famous ore producers of the district. It was not until his inattentive ears caught the name of Dick Gordon that he found interest in the conversation. Pardon, sir! Are you acquainted with Mr. Richard Gordon he asked, a touch of the gentle Spanish accent in his voice. The man to whom he had spoken, a grizzled, weather-beaten little fellow in a corduroy suit and...
