The proposed Territory was to include such portions of the Missouri and the Indian Territories as border on the Platte River. 4. Missouri Territory consists principally of extensive prairies, over which roam numerous buffalo, elk, deer, and wild horses. 5. Among the snowy summits of the Rocky Mountains, which bound this region on the west, is found the grizzly bear, the largest and fiercest animal of his kind, and peculiar to North America. 6. The white inhabitants consist of a few traders, trappers, and hunters, principally in the employ of the American Fur Company. The most important of the native tribes are the Sioux, Pawnees, Crows, and Blackfect. The Indian Territory lies westward of the States of Iowa, Missouri, and Arkansas, and principally south of the Platte River. In this Territory will be found most of the native tribes which have from time to time emigrated from east of the Mississippi. 2. Here the Indians are to be secured in governments of their own choice, subject only to such control of the United States as may be necessary to preserve peace...
