Positive form wanting.--The words better and best have no positive form; since there is no such words as bet or be, meaning good. The same is the case with the words worse and worst. 81. The word good is found in the positive degree only; there being no such words as gooder and goodest. The same is the case with the word bad; since the words badder and baddest are not used in the present English. The same, also, is the case with the words evil, ill, little, and much. 82. Two forms of the Comparative.--The word old has two comparative forms: --1. Older--as, / am older than you. 2. Elder--as, I am the elder brother. It has also two superlatives, oldest and eldest. Note.--The comparative form elder may be...
