Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Lola s Letters is an African American family s collection of heart to heart correspondences to a beloved son and brother, Samuel McGee, a soldier stationed in Germany during the Korean War. Sammie s separation from his large family added to the many challenges faced by him, his parents and siblings after the McGee s migration from Richland, Georgia to the outskirts of Trenton, New Jersey in 1946. Sammie s mother Lola Cox McGee encouraged everyone in the household to keep in touch with him, in spite of the family s day to day struggles. Lola taught her family to draw strength from God and from within when confronted with the harshness of life. She evenly showed her love for her ten children. Lola did all she could for her family during the decades (1920 s through the 80 s), especially during the times when there were no or few support...
