Senator Reed. Thank you, Mr. Chairman. Senator Roberts. I want to welcome our two distinguished witnesses. We have before us two of Americas most able and willing public servants. Admiral Giambastiani, we congratulate you on your confirmation to this important position in October. This is your first appearance before this subcommittee in your new capacity, but I am sure it will not be your last. Your leadership role as the joint forces trainer, provider, integrator, and innovator is critical to the timely and coordinated transformation of our Armed Forces, and I am sure we will seek your counsel often, so we welcome you. Admiral Cebrowski, you served our Nation well as a highly decorated sailor, and now you have selflessly taken on this very difficult and challenging chore of guiding the transformation of our Armed Forces. a concert around which manv...
