Excerpt: . and that which is sown in Bermuda to produce the true Bermuda onion, comes from this section. This seed cannot be sold anywhere for less than $3.00 per lb., and before filling your order we would acquaint you of this fact. We have a limited quantity of seed on hand, and await your orders before shipping, but would strongly recommend your not serving your customers with the cheaper grade. We are anxious to give satisfaction in your part of the country, and would rather not sell goods at all than to disappoint either you or your customers. In response to this letter the plaintiff, under date of October 8th, wrote the following: Replying to your favor of the 5th inst., we would say that we only gave the order to your salesman after he had shown us by a letter from you that...
