Rinmoe Venture, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .To love and be loved in return is a very good feeling. When you love someone and the person not only professes to love you in return, but also expresses his/her love with several deeds and actions then you are rest assured that indeed you are loved and that you have not wasted time and energy falling in love with your lover. That God loves us is a fact that we have no basis to question given the various ways in which He continually expresses His unconditional love for us. But do we love Him in return and what are the things we have done to express our professed love for Him is a question we should always ask ourselves. As you go through the chapters of this book, the Lord will grant you an understanding of the beauty of sacrifice, not as a ritual that must be followed, or as an obligation that must be met in order to get something in return, but as an expression of our heartfelt gratitude to the Lord who does not relent in loving us unconditionally. You might be of the mind set that you have not enjoyed so much of the goodness of God by the reason of the various challenges of your life, but for me in the course of writing this book, I have learned that the secret of breakthrough lies in the ability to express gratitude for the very little or even nothing that we have now, so that in our love for God this very little will be multiplied. It is important to note that sacrifices to the Lord as an offering pleasing to Him...
