In the last decade the total wealth of the United Kingdom was 10,000,000,000; of the United States, 8,000,000,000; and of France 7,200,000,000. Till a recent period, this wealth was distributed more equally in the United States than in France, and much more equally than in England. Now a startling inequality appears in the apportionment of the fruits of our common labor. Many blind themselves to the ultimate social results of this inequality, and accept it cheerfully as the fruit of economic law. They seem to forget that a movement of this kind accumulates momentum at a fearful rate; that great wealth swallows up the opportunities of an entire community. Seventy estates in the United States are estimated as averaging $35,000,000.i In Detroit 2 per cent of the citizens are said to own half the city. Twenty-five thousand persons are thought to possess...
